In the words of Rev. Barber...

For our Children: More Education, Better Schools, More Economic Investment, Health Care, Jobs and Less Prisons and Police Misconduct. We Want Justice on the Ground!

As I think about the fourth "Historic Thousands on Jones Street People's Assembly" scheduled for February 13 in downtown Raleigh, I am struck by the powerful and simple fact: Our movement has advanced good and important changes lately by recognizing that "We" is the most important word in the justice vocabulary. The issue is not what we can't do but what we can do when we work together. We have helped to shift political debate in North Carolina. We have won significant legislative battles. We have built a coalition second to none in the nation; but our work and the need for our continuing togetherness is far from over.
