

Don't Re-segregate Our Schools!!

Separate is NOT Equal!

The Chapel Hill/Carrboro branch of the NAACP is holding a press conference on at Lincoln Center Thursday, February 25 at 10:00am to voice the community's concerns and objections regarding recent School Board decisions to expand honors courses and lead us down the path of resegregating our public school system.

Speakers will include:

William J. Barber, III President of the NC NAACP (invited)

Michelle Laws, CHC NAACP branch President

Reverend Mark Royster, former chair of the Blue Ribbon Task Force

Fred Battle, Anderson-Thorpe Breakfast Club President

Parents and retired educators in the CHCCS District

We will NOT create a private school with taxpayer's dollars!

Please stand as a community in unity and say

NO to injudicious school board actions!

NO to tracking our children!

NO to stratification based upon race and class!

NO to exclusion based upon privilege and social status!
